Meeting Summary:

The team met to align on next steps for social media strategy and outreach efforts. Key discussion points included emphasizing the roles and impact of the pod makers within the community, exploring deeper community insights through Substack, and refining the overall marketing strategy. Access to social media platforms was also addressed, with all team members now authorized across relevant accounts. There was an emphasis on collaboration with changemakers and the collection of their stories to enrich content. The team also outlined the need to develop a strategic marketing plan and sync with Cedric for feedback and timeline coordination.
