

Project Roles and Responsibilities Matrix

Project Manager

Description: Project Lead/ Representative of the group- ensures tasks are completed on time within the scope.

Primary responsibilities:

- Project planning/responsibility designator
- Coordinating projects and being the face/ambassador of the project
- They are responsible for the budget and making sure the project is successful
- Ensures that the project is following the timeline

Client Communication Lead

Description: Prime coordinator for client communication for the team.

Primary responsibilities:

- Set up meetings between team members and clients
- Takes notes during meetings
- Gather client details and maintains follow ups

Project Planner

Description: Develops the project roadmap and milestones.

Primary responsibilities:

- Plan the project schedule and organize tasks in order
- Make sure team members and tools are used effectively
- Update plans when things change or problems come up

Research Lead

Description: Conducts relevant research to develop a strong foundation for the project.

Primary responsibilities:

- Research clients needs
- Create user personas from client needs and data
- Research platforms trends and data
- Compile research into usable document

UX Designer

Description: Designs user-friendly and visually appealing interfaces.

Primary responsibilities:

- Create wireframes, prototypes, and user flows
- Conduct usability testing and gather/implement feedback
- Ensure accessibility and effective/efficient responsiveness of designs

Social Media Coordinator

Description: Manages project-related social media presence and outreach.

Primary responsibilities:

- Post client-approved content
- Gather account analytics (what posts are doing good,etc.)
- Present clients with new content ideas