

- What has the team accomplished since the last time you met with the instructional team?

We sent off the document to our client to be revised and we're currently waiting for the response. We also made a project plan for the next two weeks.

- What is the team hoping to accomplish in the next two week sprint?

For the next two weeks we're gonna be gathering necessary information to evaluate their data and statistics on their social media platform.

- What barriers or challenges has the team encountered?

The client is taking a bit of time to respond but other than that we are good.
