

TEAM CONTRACT

For the team contract, go through each section as a team and respond to the questions and prompts for each section. Save your final team contract as a pdf.

Course Name: INST490: Integrated Capstone for Information Science

Capstone Project Title: Roots Africa- Info Storytelling/Social Media

Student Names: Anya Dhuria, Christina Cosentino, Sumiyah Yusuf, Amanda Tuman

Professor: Andrew Fellows

PROJECT VISION

Question: What is the team's grades expectation on this assignment e.g. A+, A, B+? Is there a consensus?

We collectively hope to achieve an A+ on this assignment.

Question: Is each member committed to putting in the work to achieve this grade? If not, how will the team resolve this?

Yes, we are all committed to putting in the work to achieve this grade. Together, we will put in our best effort in completing all assignments to our utmost potential.

Prompt: Highlight the grade that your group is targeting. All team members must agree on the decision:

50% to 60%

60% to 70%

70% to 80%

80% to 90%

90% to 100%

TEAM MEMBERS' BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS Prompt: As a team, discuss what you need from each other to work effectively as a team?

Examples: "communicating in a timely manner with each other", "being punctual to team and client meetings", "meeting task deadlines", etc. Each member needs to include at least one behavioral expectation and list a specific example.

NAME	BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATION	SPECIFIC EXAMPLE
Anya Dhuria	Communicative	All teams will communicate daily via group chat to ensure deadlines are met and everyone is on the same page pertaining to ideas/ work.
Christina Cosentino	Punctuality	All teams must complete quality work in time for deadlines.
Amanda Tuman	Accountability	All teams will ensure that they complete their allotted work and follow the proposed plan, changes in plan must be communicated with the group.
Sumiyah Yusuf	Manners/Respect	All team members need to handle one another with respect and with etiquette.

ELEMENTS OF EFFECTIVE TEAMWORK

Each member should identify at least one of the skills below that you feel you are strong in and one skill area that requires further development.

Use this information in completing the sections “SKILL STRENGTH IDENTIFICATION” and “SKILL DEVELOPMENT IDENTIFICATION” areas below.

COMMUNICATION

For effective teamwork to occur there needs to be a free, open and appropriate expression of ideas and feelings at all times. Each member actively listens to other members, and after listening, provides effective non-judgmental feedback. Members take responsibility to communicate their ideas, thoughts, concerns, etc. Respectful communication (verbal and non-verbal) in response to cultural and personal differences contributes to team cohesion.

PARTICIPATION

Team members need to contribute fully to the best of their ability. Members need to take initiative in participating in the group tasks, especially in areas where they may have strengths. Those with greater ability may also need to help those who may be struggling by guiding, coaching or critiquing. Those who may be struggling should be clear when they need clarification or assistance. To make teams work well, members need to make concerted efforts to be available for meetings. Wanting the group to succeed will contribute to success – begrudging contributions will erode success.

GIVE AND TAKE

There may be various ideas of how to achieve success within the team. Therefore, members need to be open to compromise and recognize that it is sometimes better to give in than be “right”. Members need to discern the differences between their own needs and those of the group, ideally putting the needs of the team before those of the individual.

LEADERSHIP

Each member can contribute by being a leader in the group – a group can have more than one! Members lead with the skills and abilities they possess. A member who promotes team actions, decisions and ideas demonstrates leadership. A leader recognizes that he/she needs the team, and lets each member know where they stand. Leadership is also required to initiate the resolution of team breakdowns.

ORGANIZATION

An effective team needs to be organized. Members determine how the team is organized. This in turn, contributes to a member understanding his/her responsibilities, ensuring things are getting done and that there is no repetition in completing tasks.

PREPARATION

For teams to be successful, members need to be responsible with their duties and do the work required as agreed upon. Otherwise, team progress could be impeded, especially if further steps are dependent on the required work. Everyone needs to know that they can rely on their team members in completing assigned tasks/preparation work so that the team can progress in its objective(s).

PROCEDURE

In order for teams to function well, they need to set up procedures, which will clearly identify members' responsibilities and expectations for each other. Some type of order is necessary for teams to function effectively and smoothly, otherwise teamwork may end up being inefficient, inconsistent and regularly in "crisis". Members need to function according to agreed upon procedures which will help to guide them in times of dilemmas.

CAPABILITY

Each member brings strengths to the group – not only existing skills and/or knowledge, but also the potential to learn, problem-solve and contribute to the team. Demonstrating one's interest and potential will often lead others to have more confidence in that member.

COMMITMENT

Members who are committed will often be the ones taking initiative to achieve goals/objectives of the team. They will be the ones who want to make sure the goals are clear to achieve success. Commitment needs to be directed to team goals, not individual goals. The level of commitment is usually related to the level of reliability.

PROGRESS AND ASSESSMENT

A well running team is always interested in how things are going. Members of an effective team will contribute to an attitude of action and momentum. Often, progress is a good indicator of how well the team is working together. Regular assessment is necessary for a team to ensure it is continuing to work well together. An effective team is not afraid to make changes in how it is organized or in its procedures so that improvement in achieving the goal/objective occurs.

SKILL STRENGTH IDENTIFICATION

Each member must choose at least one skill from "Elements of Effective Teamwork" (pages 2&3) that you feel is your strength. Be very specific in what activity you will apply this skill to the assignment.

MEMBER NAME	SKILL STRENGTH	SPECIFIC ACTIVITY
Christina Cosentino	Participation	I will make sure my sections of the work are completed and

		communicate effectively with my team.
Anya Dhuria	Organization	I will ensure and communicate proper group deadlines for assignments. Moreover, there will still be some time before the class deadline to review work, peer review, etc. before submitting.
Amanda Tuman	Leadership	I will make sure to contribute to the public face of the group through presenting and ensuring that there is clear communication with the client at all times.
Sumiyah Yusuf	Capability	I will make sure to balance out the group with what I have to offer when it comes to either problem solving, contributing, or learning for the group.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT IDENTIFICATION

Each member must choose at least one skill to be developed from “Elements of Effective Teamwork” (pages 2&3). Provide a specific example of how this skill is often challenging for you in a team situation and how you might develop it within this project.

MEMBER NAME	SKILL DEVELOPMENT	SPECIFIC ACTIVITY
Christina Cosentino	Give and Take	Sometimes I get annoyed

		when people do not do their work and I have to do it to submit the project on time - I will do my best to help others with their work in case of an emergency.
Amanda Tuman	Progress and Assessment	I find it difficult to readjust to a new plan or schedule when things change or don't go to plan. I will be more open to change and obstacles that come along the way as we develop our product.
Anya Dhuria	Communication	Although I communicate effectively when setting deadlines/ splitting work, when putting out ideas, I sometimes become sheltered. Through this project, I will put myself out more and voice my ideas.
Sumiyah Yusuf	Organization	I find it hard to get my schedule together especially when I'm really busy with classes and work. I try my best to have a good work and school balance for myself.

CRITICAL REVIEW DATES

It is strongly recommended that you pre-arrange Critical Review Dates. These meetings will help to assess if you are on track and if the project is moving along as planned.

Please discuss:

- How often your will team meet to review the project status.
- How will you communicate with each other and share information (i.e.:

Facebook, email, Dropbox, face-to-face, Google group, etc.).

- What will be the ramifications of no regular communication?
- What contact information you will share with each other and when it is appropriate to contact each other.
- Deadline dates to ensure task completions.
- Who will take the lead in communicating with the team and initiating discussions when needed.

Review Date #1: TBD- in March

Location/Method of Communication: We will communicate via text Message and/or Zoom. If there is no regular communication, we will confront the individual. Moreover, if one is still unresponsive we will raise our concerns to the professor. We will follow deadlines as we agreed to in this contract- as it becomes updated with the proper deadlines. In addition, the project manager will communicate the deadlines to the group.

Review Date #2: TBD- in April

Location/Method of Communication: We will communicate via text Message and/or Zoom. If there is no regular communication, we will confront the individual. Moreover, if one is still unresponsive we will raise our concerns to the professor. We will follow deadlines as we agreed to in this contract- as it becomes updated with the proper deadlines. In addition, the project manager will communicate the deadlines to the group.

Review Date #3: TBD- in May
